

WILSON TERMS U.S. WARSHIPS ENGINES TO PROMOTE INTERESTS OF HUMANITY

PRESIDENT REVIEWS ATLANTIC FLEET—IS TENDER- ED LUNCHEON BY CITY OF NEW YORK

Thousands Stand in Chill Drizzle as Sailors and Marines March Up Fifth Avenue—Thousands More Watch the Mayflower Pass Up the River Between Lines of War Vessels—Ships Swing Out to Sea for Naval War Game Today.

NEW YORK, May 17.—President Wilson, the man on whom the eyes of the world are turned because of the international situation, today reviewed the Atlantic fleet in the Hudson river, and at a luncheon tendered to him on shore by the City of New York told a distinguished gathering of navy officers, army officers, and civilians what the country and its navy stood for. The great battleships that lay in the river, he said, were "engines to promote the interests of humanity."

Want No Nation's Property.
"The inspiring thing about America," the president asserted, "is that she asks nothing for herself except what she has a right to ask for humanity itself. We want no nation's property; we wish to stand selfishly in the way of the development of no nation."

"It is not pretension on our part to say that we are privileged to stand for what every nation would wish to stand for and speaking for those things which all humanity must desire."

The spirit which brooded over the river today, said the president, was "just a solemn evidence that the force of America is the force of moral principle, that there is not anything else she loves and that there is not anything else for which she will contend."

Pays Tribute to Daniels.
The president took occasion in his speech to pay tribute to the secretary of the navy, Daniels, who sat beside him.

Although the day was damp and chilly with occasional showers of rain, the weather abated in no way the enthusiasm with which New York greeted the head of the nation. In the forenoon he reviewed a land parade of 5,000 sailors and marines from the fleet's sixteen battleships and from the moment he set foot on shore until, after the luncheon he returned to the Mayflower to review the fleet, his progress through the streets was a continuous ovation, remarked upon by those who accompanied him as the most enthusiastic they had witnessed since the president's inauguration. He was plainly touched by the welcome accorded him.

Thousands Stand in Drizzle.
Everywhere the spirit of patriotism was in evidence. Many men and women seized every opportunity to tell the president of their support in the present international crisis. Thousands stood in the chill drizzle while the brigade of sailors and marines marched up Fifth avenue and during the afternoon with a cold damp wind blowing across the Hudson, thousands more thronged the slopes of Riverside drive and other vantage points to watch the Mayflower as she passed up the river between the grim gray lines of war vessels. The president's remarks at the luncheon were greeted with tumultuous applause. He said in part:

"When I think of the flag which these ships carry, the only touch of color about them, the only thing that moves as if it had a settled spirit in it, in their solid structure, it seems to me that I see alternate stripes of parchment upon which are written the right of liberty and justice and stripes of blood spilled to vindicate those rights and then in the corner a prediction of the blue serene into which every nation may swim which stands for these great things."

Do Not Dictate Spirit.
"The mission of America is the only thing that a citizen or soldier should think about, he has nothing to do with the formulation of her policies; he is to support her policy whatever it is—but he is to support her policy in the spirit of herself, and the strength of our policy is that we who for the time being administer the affairs of this nation do not originate her spirit, we attempt to embody it; we attempt to realize it in action; we are dominated by it, we do not dictate it."

"And so with every man in arms who serves the nation, he stands and wants to do the things which the nation desires. America some times seems, perhaps, to forget her program or rather I will say, that some times those representing her seem to forget her program. But the people never forget them. It is as startling as it is touching to see how, whenever you touch a principle, you touch the hearts of the people of the United States. They listen to your debates of policy, they determine which party they will prefer to power, they choose and prefer as ordinary men; but their real affection, their real force, their real irresistible momentum is for the ideals which men embody."

Boards Yacht for Review.
The president boarded his yacht for the review at 3 o'clock after a quick trip from the Hotel Baltimore, where the luncheon was held. A half hour was spent in receiving visits from the flag officers and captains of the fleet and then the Mayflower got under way. The president together with Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Secretary Redfield and acting Mayor McAneny stood on the yacht's bridge. The fleet stretched ahead up the river for four miles, each ship dressed from stem to stern with pennants and ensigns, the national colors fluttering over the taffrails and at mastsheads. The crews in blue service uniforms, the officers in gold lace, manned the rails.

Overhead were dark, sullen clouds and a gray mist blew over the river, harmonizing with the gray of the battleships but so thick at times that the furthestmost ships of the line could scarcely be distinguished from the Mayflower. Her course took her between the line of battleships and destroyers around the end of the fleet and back between the battleships and the Manhattan shore.

Battleships Thunder Salute.
As the president's yacht, conveyed by four destroyers, reached the flagship Wyoming, the first in line, the president's salute of 21 guns boomed across the water and reverberated back and forth between the palisades and New York's skyscrapers. Each battleship as the Mayflower passed thumped a similar salute, 336 guns in all.

The Mayflower was followed by the despatch boat Dolphin, carrying assistant secretary of the Navy Roosevelt, the yacht Iris of the Commerce Department, the Yankton as press boat and the Dixie with the wives and friends of navy officers aboard and a municipal ferry boat for the city board of aldermen. Their bands saluted each battleship with the playing of the Star Spangled Banner which the battleships' bands returned.

The frequent playing of the national anthem kept the president's head bare down much of the review. Despite the mist he refused to keep his hat on.

"I have too much respect for the fleet and the anthem," he remarked. A miniature boat called the "Suffrage" hanging on the Michigan, which later appeared in a water carnival tonight, attracted the president's attention, but he only smiled.

Is Dinner Guest of Fletcher.
The president remained aboard the yacht after she had again cast anchor and at 7:30 was taken in a navy launch to the flagship Wyoming, where he was a dinner guest of Admiral Fletcher and officers of the fleet.

The day's program ended with a race under the glare of searchlights, among the battleship boat crews and the water pageant, consisting of a parade of ship's launches humorously or historically decorated.

REPORT CAPTURE OF GERMAN TRENCHES

ASSUME OFFENSIVE AFTER FORT- NIGHT SPENT IN REPULSING ATTACKS

Movement is Still Under Way and Gives Indication of Being As Important as the Recent French Advance—Austrians Assert Army is Still Advancing.

BULLETIN.
ROME, May 17.—(via Paris, May 18.—(2:20 a. m.)—Prince Von Buelow, German ambassador and Baron von Macchio, the Austrian ambassador, are preparing to leave Rome, according to the newspapers. A special train is in readiness to take Prince Von Buelow to Chiasso, Switzerland and Baron Von Macchio to Ala, in the Austrian Tyrol.

London, May 17.—(10:05 p. m.)—Field Marshal Sir John French in a message tonight informed the British people that their troops again had assumed the offensive after a fortnight spent in hurling back the German attacks and had swept across and captured all German trenches to the south of Richebourg l'Avre over a two mile front. This movement, which resulted in the capture of numerous prisoners, many of whom surrendered in bodies, is still under way and gives indication of being as important in the matter of territory won as was the recent French advance. Elsewhere along the western battle front a lull prevails.

Assert Army Still Advances.
In the east Vienna reports that Sunday passed without much activity. This is considered in military circles here as possibly indicating that the Russians have reached a point where they are able to re-establish their line. The Austrians, however, assert that their army is still advancing.

A homeward bound Zeppelin returning from a raid on England, was attacked today as it reached the Belgian coast. The big gas bag is reported to have been damaged but the fate of aircraft was not learned as it drifted away in the fog out of sight of the attackers.

Strain Somewhat Relieved.
The strain of waiting for definite news of Italy's intentions with regard to the war has been somewhat relieved by the statement that nothing further is to be done until parliament meets next Thursday. Meanwhile special trains are reported to be in readiness to take the German and Austrian ambassadors out of the country. The German press is plainly gloomy over the situation.

BLUFFS BUSINESS MEN ORGANIZE WITH AID OF LOCAL CITIZENS

Several members of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce were present Monday evening at the initial meeting of the Bluffs business men's organization and speeches were made by Secretary Carl H. Weber, Harry M. Andre, Henry Frisch and G. C. Rockwood. The body will be called either the Bluffs Business Men's association or the Bluffs Commercial Club and makes its start with much enthusiasm. R. P. Nelson of Winchester addressed the assemblage as did also a number of Bluffs citizens. Dr. E. A. Canatney was elected president of the club and Walter Andre, secretary. The meeting was held in the Lewis Opera house and was attended by more than a hundred business men. Supper was served by ladies of the Methodist Protestant church.

NEW PRESIDENT OF PORTUGUESE CABINET IS SHOT; DIES OF WOUNDS

Assailant is Shot and Killed by Gendarmes—Shooting Takes Place on Board Train.

Madrid, via Paris, May 18.—(3 a. m.)—Joao Chagas, president of the Portuguese cabinet, who was shot on a train while traveling from Oporto to Lisbon, died of his wounds, according to the latest reports reaching here from Lisbon.

Is Shot Four Times.
Lisbon, via London, May 17.—(8:30 p. m.)—Joao Chagas, the new president of the cabinet was shot four times with a pistol while on board the midnight train from Oporto. His assailant was Senator Freitas who also was shot and wounded by a passenger of the train. Senator Chagas was taken to a hospital where he died. In addition to other wounds he is suffering from a fracture of the skull.

Gendarmes Kill Assailant.
Madrid, via London, May 17.—(10:25 p. m.)—A despatch received here from Lisbon concerning the shooting of Senator Chagas says the attack occurred at the Entrocamento railway station. The despatch adds that Senator Freitas was killed by gendarmes.

REVIVE QUESTION OF ANNEXATION.

Havana, May 17.—The question of the annexation of the Isle of Pines has been revived by a petition signed by many residents of the Isle requesting that it be declared American territory. A copy of the petition has been sent to the Cuban government.

War News Summarized

Victories in the west for the allies and a continuation of the Austro-German drive of the Russians in the east are chronicled in the latest official reports of the various war headquarters.

Two miles of German trenches captured by the British first army in the region of Richebourg l'Avre, the taking of a large number of German prisoners and the annihilation of one German contingent numbering several hundred men by their own artillery fire are recorded by Field Marshal Sir John French and the Paris war office in announcing a further success for the British arms in France, a short distance north of LaBassee.

The Austrians in central Galicia assert that they have advanced toward the upper Danube and occupied Drohobycz, forty miles southwest of Lemberg. The final decision of Italy as to whether she will enter into the war is still being withheld. An announcement of her purpose is expected with the convening of parliament next Thursday.

Revolutionists are against attacking Lisbon, aided by the warships which are bombarding the city. Over a hundred persons have been killed. An attempt has been made to assassinate Joao Chagas, who was shot four times by Senator Freitas.

Gendarmes shot and instantly killed Freitas. The Berlin newspapers have published a news agency version of the American note to Germany. The Lokal Anzeiger says Germany's reply probably will be that she is occupied with her "sacred duties" and is not being disturbed from any side.

ORDER BRINGS ANOTHER DELAY IN PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THAW

Justice Ingraham Stays All Proceedings in Habeas Corpus Petition to Have Jury Pass Upon Thaw's Sanity.

New York, May 17.—An order issued today by Presiding Justice Ingraham in the appellate division of the supreme court staying all proceedings in the habeas corpus petition of Harry K. Thaw in which Thaw seeks to have a jury in the supreme court pass upon his sanity, brought another delay in the long drawn out proceedings against the slayer of Stanford White.

Thaw's case had been twice called during the day in the supreme court and Justice Hendrick had postponed the case until tomorrow at the request of Deputy Attorney General Becker. The justice at the time stated that unless some action was taken in the meantime by the appellate division he would begin the hearing tomorrow.

The stay granted by the appellate division is part of an action brought by Frank A. Cook of the attorney general's office. The order directs Thaw to show cause Friday morning why a stay should not issue pending the determination of an appeal taken by the attorney general from the decision of the appellate division last Friday, in which the ruling issued by the supreme court granting a jury hearing as to Thaw's sanity was upheld.

FEDERAL COMMITTEE FAILS TO FIND SOURCE OF CATTLE EPIDEMIC

Will Go to Niles, Mich., Where the First Case of Foot and Mouth Disease Appeared Last October.

Chicago, May 17.—The federal committee which is investigating the development of foot and mouth disease among cattle in the United States failed to find the source of the epidemic today. The committee composed of United States Senators Gore of Oklahoma, Sheppard of Texas and Kenyon of Iowa, will go to Niles, Mich., where the first cases appeared last October.

Dr. S. E. Bennet, veterinary inspector for the department of agriculture, testified he had urged W. E. Skinner, general manager of the National Dairy Show, not to receive any exhibits from Michigan. He also said he had induced the railroads to agree not to handle cattle from the infected districts.

B. T. Leuzardier, treasurer of a Chicago tanning concern in whose Niles branch the disease was first found here testified. He scouted the theory that the germs might have come on hides from China and South America. "I have ascertained that germs in hides would have been destroyed in process of tanning," he said.

RELIEVE FEARS FOR SAFETY OF AMERICANS

YAQUI INDIANS WHO HAVE BEEN AT- TACKING YAQUI PUEBLO WITHDRAW

Americans Are Within Reach of Coast, But for the Present Are Waiting and Hoping for Restoration of Order—Losses Are Heavy.

Washington, May 17.—Immediate fears for the safety of sixty-five or more American settlers in the Yaqui Valley, Mexico, where Yaqui Indians are on the war path, were relieved today by advices to the state and navy departments. The Americans, the reports said, had concentrated at Yaqui Pueblo, on the railway within reach of the coast, but for the present they were waiting and hoping for restoration of order.

Yaquis Have Withdrawn.
A message sent yesterday by Gen. Sosa, Villa commander in the Yaqui region, to Governor Maytorena of Sonora, was transmitted by the American consul at Nogales. Gen. Sosa said the Yaquis who had been attacking Yaqui Pueblo, an old settlement where the Americans had concentrated, had withdrawn and now were menacing a small party of Mexican soldiers at Becum. Col. Bacanegras, with 200 soldiers, was proceeding to Yaqui Pueblo to escort the Americans to Fundicion or Tabari bay, where they could be picked up by cruisers of the Pacific fleet.

"It is said," a state department summary stated, "that this arrangement was made in order to give the colonists an opportunity to leave the valley in comparative safety. It is reported that the losses suffered in the present raid are heavy and that until a permanent garrison is established in the valley there will be danger of destruction of American property."

"On May 15 the manager of the Richardson Construction company at Guaymas telegraphed the American consul at Nogales that William Stocker, who was wounded in the recent fighting with the Yaquis, has been sent to Empalme; that the bodies of Donovan, Wilson and Fay have been found and that there have been no further casualties among the Americans reported."

Situation Temporarily Improved.
"Consul Simpich states that from all he can learn the situation seems temporarily improved, although the Indians still control practically the whole region from Lenche to San Blas in Sinaloa."

"Officials of the United Sugar company have informed Consul Simpich that one of the American employees of the company was killed lately by Indians with bows and arrows."

"Consul Simpich states that American travelers should be advised of the turbulent conditions prevailing in Sonora and warned to refrain from entering the state."

"A report dated May 16th, from Hermosillo states that the Yaquis have attacked a train sent out from LaColorado, killing the engineer and several others."

Knox, of Pennsylvania, former secretary of state, Chairman Walsb of the federal commission on industrial relations; F. A. Delano, of the federal reserve board; Senators Borah, Thomas, Newlands and Reed; Governors Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania; Ferris of Michigan; Hall of Louisiana and Mayor Rolph of San Francisco.

ILLINOIS CATHOLIC UNION FAVORS UNITY OF ALL AMERICANS

AURORA, Ill., May 17.—The Illinois Catholic Union, formerly the German Catholic Federation, in annual session tonight adopted a resolution favoring unity of all Americans at this crucial period.

The resolution which was adopted after a spirited discussion in the German language said: "We solemnly recommend all fellow citizens, whatever their birth or ancestry, to exercise at this crucial period, when the unity of the country is put to a severe test, mutual forbearance, so that neither prejudice, distrust nor dissension may find Americans a separated and disunited people."

COMPLETE PLANS FOR FINAL HEARING AN WATERWAY PROJECT

Both House and Senate Members Will Participate in Hearing in House Chamber Wednesday—Lewis and Sherman to Support Bill.

Springfield, Ill., May 17.—Plans for the final hearing upon Governor Dunne's waterway project were practically completed today. The hearing will be held next Wednesday afternoon in the house chamber. Both house and senate members will participate.

Senators James Hamilton Lewis and L. Y. Sherman will be present and support the bill. Governor Dunne also will make one more appeal to the lawmakers. After this hearing Chairman Igoe of the house waterway committee will endeavor to have prompt action. Claims were made today by supporters of the plan that they will have ninety-seven votes in the house. Some opposition is anticipated but they express confidence in getting the bill through without serious amendment. No canvass of senators has been made but friends of the bill declare they will have sufficient votes to secure its passage.

Tomorrow is scheduled as field day for Chicago measures on third reading in the house. It is expected that the entire day will be spent in calling the roll upon bills affecting Chicago and Cook county. Included in the list are several pension bills, the matter of "home rule" for Chicago in the control of her public utilities, park consolidation, financial relief, harbors and bathing beaches and a new wheel tax act. Special orders on the senate calendar for tomorrow include two constitutional convention resolutions. The Keller resolution provides for the creation of initiative on legislative measures. The Compton resolution covers the proposed tax reform amendment.

The house was in session this afternoon long enough to advance nine bills from second to third reading and advance four bills on first reading. Chairman Smejkal of the appropriations committee introduced the omnibus appropriation bill providing for the salaries of members of the assembly, state officers, members of the supreme court and all other statutory offices. The items aggregate $3,155,236. Two years ago this omnibus bill carried a total of $2,600,000. The bill was referred to the appropriations committee.

ABNORMALLY COLD WEATHER PREVALS THROUGHOUT COUNTRY

Temperatures in Upper Lake Region Twenty Degrees Below Seasonal Average.

Washington, May 17.—Abnormally cold weather prevailed throughout the entire country, except in the gulf states, with temperatures 20 degrees below the seasonal average in the upper lake region and the Dakotas.

Reports to the weather bureau told of two disturbances, one accompanied by heavy fronts in Nebraska, Minnesota and parts of Iowa, and Wisconsin and the other attended by rains over the northern states east of the Mississippi which were said to be responsible for the unsettled conditions and low temperatures. The eastern storm was said to be passing off into the Atlantic and the one in the west to be moving eastward.

Frost warnings were issued tonight for the northwest states, except Montana and for the great central valleys, except the lower Mississippi, for the lake region and the central portions of the east mountain districts.

DISMISS CONSPIRACY CHARGES AGAINST MINE UNION OFFICIALS

CALUMET, Mich., May 17.—The conspiracy indictments found against President C. H. Mercer and other officials of the Western Federation of Miners to the number of eighteen by the Houghton county grand jury a year ago, as a result of alleged acts of violence said to have been committed at the direction of the defendants during the copper strike were dismissed today by P. H. O'Brien in the Baraga county circuit court at L'Anse, on motion of prosecutor W. J. Galbraith of Houghton county.

The prosecutor said the strike has established in this community certain fundamental facts and principles, and its conduct, leadership and subsequent events have thoroughly discredited the imported mercenary agitators and the gospel of class hatred.

EXPECT GERMANY'S REPLY THIS WEEK

Ambassador Gerard Re- ports That He Has Read Document to Von Jagow

DUMBA AND BRYAN TALK

Austrian Ambassador Discusses With Secretary, Situation Pro- duced By Sinking of Lusitania

URGE SUSPENSION OF ATTACKS

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Germany is expected to answer the American note of last Friday before the end of this week. Ambassador Gerard cabled the state department today that he had read the document to Herr Von Jagow, the foreign minister, Saturday morning, and that an early reply would be forthcoming.

The ambassador was given no intimation of the feeling of the German government. He was assured merely that the subject would require consideration by the higher officials and that a reply would be ready soon. Inasmuch as the press had not been permitted to publish the text of the note, the ambassador also was unable to report on the state of public opinion toward it.

Ambassadors Are Active.
In the meantime the diplomatic activity of Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, and Dr. Constantin T. Dumba, the Austrian ambassador, both of whom are understood to be endeavoring to prevent a rupture of friendly relations between Germany and the United States, is attracting much attention.

Neither of the diplomats discussed the subject today. Dr. Dumba had a long conference with Secretary Bryan and later with other officials at the state department. It is known that he discussed informally the situation produced by the sinking of the Lusitania and the sending of the American note and it is understood also that Secretary Bryan apprised President Wilson in New York of the substance of the conversation. Later Dumba conferred with Count Von Bernstorff.

Both the Austrian and German ambassadors are understood to have telegraphed to their government urging suspension of submarine attacks on passenger ships while the diplomatic discussions are in progress because of the serious situation that has resulted in the United States from the sinking of the Lusitania. They have cautioned extreme care lest the sinking of another ship with American lives aboard may lead to an immediate break in the relations of the United States with Germany. Austria is watching with much interest the situation with which Germany is confronted in the United States and her influence is being used in the direction of assisting in a peaceful settlement.

Discuss Various Suggestions.
Various suggestions have been discussed by the German and Austrian ambassadors and it is understood that many of them have been called to their home governments. Neither is informed as yet as to the policy the German government finally will follow.

The Count Von Bernstorff is endeavoring to secure the adoption of a policy by his government which will satisfy public opinion in Germany with references to the continued use of the submarine as a commerce destroyer and still meet the American appeal for humane treatment of passengers and crews of belligerent vessels is the prevalent belief in many quarters.

The general expectation here is that Germany will retract her willingness to abandon her present submarine warfare on merchant ships and follow the maritime prize laws if neutrals will influence the allies to permit the shipment of foodstuffs to civilians in belligerent territory. In this connection there has been some consideration given in official quarters here to the advisability of sending a note of protest to Great Britain against the actual operations of its fleet in enforcing the blockade of commerce with Germany.

While the United States in effect recognized the right of the allies to maintain an effective blockade off the German coast, it has never admitted their right to interrupt trade with neutral countries unless it is proved to be of a contraband character with an ultimate enemy destination.

URGES BOARD TO RECONSIDER ORDER.

Chicago, May 17.—Resolutions urging the federal reserve board to reconsider its rule and permit national banks to co-operate in groups to establish branch banking houses in foreign countries were adopted today by the Illinois Manufacturers' association. The present rule is an advantage to Eastern banks it was asserted. Individual banks are permitted to have foreign branches. A second resolution passed approval of President Wilson's note.

As one speaker said at the Y. M. C. A. dinner last night it does not matter so much about the past of the local association as it does about the future. The institution deals with vital problems and is a distinct aid toward good citizenship. All that is needed for its support is the deserved interest of the community. Within a few days the campaign to arouse that interest will begin and there is every reason to believe that public sympathy and aid will not be found lacking.

U. S. Began War Century Ago.

On May 19, 1815, just a century ago tomorrow, the United States opened her seventh war. It was aimed to punish the pirates of Algiers, and Commodore Stephen Decatur was sent with nine vessels to punish the treachery and violations of treaty which the Dey of Algiers inflicted upon American merchantmen during the War of 1812.

On Decatur's arrival in the Mediteranean, he captured the Algerian frigate Mashouda, forty-six guns, the flagship of Admiral Rais Hamida. On June 28 Decatur arrived off Algiers and dictated terms of peace favorable to the United States. It was stipulated that this country should never pay tribute to the Dey for the protection of American commerce from pirates and that all Christian captives should be released.

This treaty and the demands of Decatur gave the death blow to a cruel system of piracy which for centuries had elevated the Barbary powers into baneful prominence. For his service, Decatur received the thanks of all the nations of Europe and in December, when President Madison assembled congress, he began his message with a tribute to Decatur's success.

Mr. Moore's Work.

Editor, Jacksonville Journal.

Dear Sir:

The historic articles appearing in the Journal recently from the pen of Mr. Ensley Moore are of unusual interest and of great historic value. Mr. Moore is rendering the city and country, in fact the whole state and nation, a great service by these contributions. Jacksonville has had an unusual citizenship in men and women who have influenced state and national affairs, in almost every department of thought, and there has been all too little reliable information put into permanent form, with regard to these people who have now become historic.

I desire to express to Mr. Moore my own personal appreciation of the work he is doing, and to say that I am sure the entire city also appreciates his service. I trust that he will continue the good work he has so well begun. I understand that he still has a large amount of historic data in connection with the early history of Jacksonville and its people.

Most of the men and women who shaped the character of Jacksonville and of the Middle West have passed away, but we owe it to them and to ourselves in appreciative memory of their services that the story should be put into permanent form for our benefit and the benefit of our children. I trust that Mr. Moore will give himself still more definitely to this historic work, for which he is in every way so eminently and admirably adapted.

War Munitions Suit.

The hearing set for the Milwaukee Circuit Court, at which General Samuel Pearson will be required to show cause why his action against the Allis-Chalmers company in connection with the alleged manufacture of shrapnel shells for the Allies, should not be permanently stayed and dismissed, is expected to develop an interesting story from the former Boer general. The filing of the complaint by General Pearson under the Wisconsin "discovery" statute created a stir a few weeks ago, for it sought to force the officials of the Allis-Chalmers company to disclose its business relations with others for the manufacture of war munitions. The answer of the company was that Pearson, not being a stockholder, had no right to inquire into the company's business.

The General is said to have arrived recently from Europe. His friends at Allentown, Pa., where he long made his home after the Boer war, believe that he went to Germany and capitalized his professional halting of England to get backing for a campaign in America. He is said to have remarked that he "had a real pickle" for President Wilson, for the President's stand on neutrality, and would embarrass the administration if he could.

Pearson has been in the limelight for many years. He reached America as a Boer war hero, oppressed, hunted and spied upon by the British government because he said, he refused to take the oath of allegiance to the crown. How he escaped from the English court he never explained.

The General was not to play a minor role, even in Democratic America. He disappeared from Allentown one day, and came back a few months later with what purported to be a charter from Castro giving him a grant of 18,000,000 acres of land in Venezuela, and he began to talk of a big colonization scheme. He actually managed to see J. Pierpont Morgan and put the plan before him. Morgan received a generous denunciation when he declined to finance the enterprise. He has from time to time suggested other big schemes equally visionary.

Oppose General Law Movement.

The movement inaugurated last week for placing the Jacksonville schools under the general law by the introduction of a bill in the general assembly abolishing the special charter, is meeting with some opposition. In several instances at least the opposition is from unexpected sources, several men who have been understood to be favorable to the general law, having suggested to the assemblymen from this district that the movement to abolish the charter has arisen through a series of misunderstandings and that the best course to follow is to let the bill die.

But the most surprising assertion which has been re-echoed from Springfield is that the desire for the general law here is the result of agitation on the part of a few drys and that since it is just a wet and dry controversy that it will be wise politics to let the whole proposition alone. Since the wets are said to have enough power in the house to control matters if they so desire, the shrewdness of this statement on the part of certain Jacksonville men is quite readily apparent.

"THE GREAT TRIBULATION" WAS SUBJECT AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

A sermon of more than ordinary interest was delivered by the Rev. Percy W. Stephens at the First Baptist church on Sunday morning. The subject was one which has received universal attention and caused universal comment. It was the eighth of the series of "Through the Bible" sermons now being delivered by the pastor with the large colored diagram, the topic being "The Great Tribulation".

On Sunday morning next Mr. Stephens will preach on "The Millennium" or "Christ's Reign on Earth for One Thousand Years", and in the evening on "The Judgment Day", using the colored diagram for both sermons, which will be the ninth and tenth of the series.

On Sunday morning last Mr. Stephens spoke in part as follows: "Dr. A. J. Gordon said 'Prophecy is the mould of history'. It is a significant fact that 'about one third of the Bible is prophecy', and our subject this morning deals with prophecy.

"A number of years ago, German astronomers fixed their meridian circle on a stone at Aiken, S. C. to watch the transit on Venus. They left the stone in place for those who in 2004 will again watch Venus make its transit across the sun's disc. It is not wonderful that men can place such confidence in God's natural laws. How much greater should our confidence be in God's written word which reveals many events yet to happen.

"The next great event to happen according to the prophetic portion of the word of God is the personal return of the Lord Jesus.

"This second advent of Christ will be in two stages. The first of these will be His private appearing when the church will be caught up to be forever with Him, and the second will be His public appearing when 'every eye shall see Him'. Between these two aspects of Christ's return will transpire 'The Great Tribulation' which will last for seven years.

"The events of this period might be summed up for conciseness as follows: Events on earth, and events in heaven.

"First the events on earth. These I reduce to three:

"1. The Jewish nation will be revived though not fully restored, and will be the messengers of God once more.

"2. Antichrist will rise and will sway tremendous power. He will practically be Satan incarnate, and will be greater than any ruler or tyrant the world has seen.

"3. The battle of Armageddon will take place, and the European conflict cannot be this final conflict because the subjects of it are to be the Jews, and also because Armageddon is a location in Asia, and no place in Europe can be substituted for it.

"Second, regarding events in heaven, and these also I reduce to three.

"1. The rapture of the church, when dead and living believers in Christ will be caught up to meet Christ in the air.

"2. The judgment seat of Christ, when those who have been caught up will be tried according to their works that they might receive their rewards for the marriage supper of the Lamb.

"3. The marriage supper of the Lamb, and the supper says 'blessed is he who shall sit at the marriage supper of the Lamb'.

"Following these events Christ will return to establish His wonderful kingdom and will reign in person on earth as 'King of Kings' as Lord of Lords for one thousand years. On Sunday morning next our subject will deal with this golden age, the Millennial Reign of Christ."

Carl Swanson, Gus Phalen and Misses Anna, Ruth and Clara Deters formed a party which spent the day Sunday at the lake near Concord.

William Rawlings and son, George of Franklin, were here Monday to attend the Gilbert funeral.

MISS ESTHER ADELIA JOHNSON

PASSES AWAY MONDAY NIGHT

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson Answers Final Summons After Two Years Illness.

Miss Esther Adelia Johnson passed away Monday night at 11:15 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson, 638 South West street, after an illness of one and one half years. She was born thirty years ago at New Windsor, Ill., and is survived by her parents, two brothers and two sisters, G. A. Johnson of Portland, Oregon; C. A. Johnson of San Francisco and Amanda and Edna of Jacksonville.

Miss Johnson attended the public schools but her chief interest and talent lay in her music and her friends will remember the rare and exquisite skill which marked her piano playing. She studied at the Illinois Woman's college, and at the Conservatory and also further pursued her music at Kansas City and Dallas, Texas.

About five years ago she graduated from Brown's Business college, and the last two years prior to her illness was spent in Detroit, Mich., where she had a position as a stenographer. Although always having been in frail health, it was while here that she suddenly broke down and a complication of diseases set in. She was brought home last spring, where she has been tenderly cared for by the most loving care and unceasing attention. Her pluck and the brave fighting spirit she manifested all through her trying illness is worthy of much mention, and all those who knew and loved her remember her as a character of great strength and spirited beauty, her conception of life and people bordered on the idealistic, and she never failed to give a generous outlook and a broad view in all her dealings with everyone.

Funeral arrangements will be made later.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Bremen, April 23.—A coffee factory in which artillery shells as well as coffee are being made, is to be seen in Bremen and in Luebeck ammunition is manufactured in a ship-building plant and in a cannery. In fact, in practically every factory where there is the proper machinery, munitions of war are being made. Some of the plants conceal the work from the foreigners; others, however, are quite frank about it, and let visitors see some of the unimportant processes of construction.

Aside from the manufacture of shells and automobiles, in Bremen, business appears to have suffered considerably from the war—partly because of the stoppage of export trade and import trade by water, partly by the shortage of men.

In Luebeck the correspondent was shown the shell-making in a cannery factory, but was told that the largest and most important establishment of that kind in the city was unfortunately closed because the government was using it for the manufacture of some mysterious substance.

In Bremen business men evinced a desire to deny that the war has materially changed things; in Hamburg the same men frankly say that everything is "dead"; in Luebeck no one is complaining.

London, April 23.—Letters signed by 400 British soldiers have been sent to Queen Mary, telling of the benefits they received from a Young men's Christian Association recreation hut named in her honor and situated in the rear of the fighting line in France.

The Y. M. C. A. has a number of these amusement shelters for soldiers in France. Two of them were built under peculiar circumstances. For one, the money was collected from more than 600,000 boys and girls of England, who gave their pennies. Contributions from 5,000 owners of dogs and cats paid for the other.

Arrangements have been made to send over 24 billiard tables to the nuts in France. The soldiers are now planting flowers and shrubs about the premises.

Berlin, April 23.—Dr. J. Jastrow, professor at the University of Berlin in an article commenting upon the first report of the new Federal Reserve Banks in the United States, says:

"Although the report covers only the operations for six weeks, it nevertheless offers an imposing picture and confirms in all respects my opinions, earlier expressed, that a financial work was being done here which promised especially to grow into a rival of unanticipated importance for the position of the English money market."

London, April 23.—Premier Asquith has used the phrase, "deliver the goods". The Premier is noted for his precise and classical English, and when he puts his seal on an Americanism it is in a fair way to become incorporated in English usage.

"Lloyd George," comments one paper, "who is more forceful but not so classical, has talked about 'push and go.' Now it remains for Mr. Balfour, if he can spare a moment from his new duties at the Admiralty to tell us to 'get a move on.' But out statesmen have yet some distance to go before they attain the homeliness of phrase of America's public men."

Oxford, England, May 15.—Oxford University has elected Dr. James M. Baldwin, honorary professor of the University of Mexico, and formerly professor of science in Toronto, Princeton and Johns Hopkins Universities, to be Herbert Spencer Lecturer for the year 1915-16.

CAMPAIGN FOR Y.M.C.A. WILL BE INAUGURATED

PURPOSE IS TO RAISE FUND FOR TWO YEARS EXPENSE.

State Association Will Aid in Work—Judge Selden Spencer Made Strong Address at Meeting Monday Night—Executive Committee Includes Dr. F. A. McCarty, M. F. Dunlap and W. J. Brady.

A campaign to put the Y. M. C. A. of Jacksonville on a substantial basis was inaugurated Monday night. This sentence does not hardly express it, either, for the dinner last night, served at 44 North Side Square was preliminary to the campaign which is to open formally the coming week. For sometime plans have been under way to accomplish this commendable work, and an executive committee consisting of Dr. F. A. McCarty, M. F. Dunlap and W. J. Brady has the general work in charge. At the meeting last night Mayor Rodgers presided and the principal address was made by Selden P. Spencer of St. Louis. Other who spoke were John J. Reeve, P. M. Deelhake, state Y. M. C. A. secretary and A. L. Snyder who it is proposed shall undertake the work of local secretary.

The general plan is to raise $4,000 for the conduct of the association the coming year, the pledge to extend for like amount in the year succeeding. The state association and those who are particularly interested in the work here have planned that the funds can be raised for the coming two years without any reference to the past, and that at the end of the two years if it has not been fully demonstrated that the institution is well worth while, then there can be talk of closing it.

Young Men a Real Asset.

Before the program of speeches last night an excellent dinner was served by the ladies of Northminster church. Mayor Rodgers in his introductory remarks said that the assemblage was because of the interest those present had in the welfare of Jacksonville. He referred to the illustrious past that Jacksonville has in many ways and said that this city has been first in a great many things, among the number, having erected the first Y. M. C. A. building in the state. He said that one of the principal products of the city has been the young men and young women who are educated here, and the high standard of citizenship has been one of the principal assets of the city.

Mayor Rodgers introduced John J. Reeve to speak in the absence of Dr. F. A. McCarty, who was out of the city. Mr. Reeve believed that the high standard of citizenship which has long been recognized as inseparable with Jacksonville is due not only to our educational institutions but to the work of the Y. M. C. A. as well. He said that the institution could do much to help in maintaining our reputation as a city of homes and as a most desirable place to live, and that each citizen who had the best interests of Jacksonville at heart should recognize the importance of the institution.

Must Not Sacrifice Y. M. C. A.

M. F. Dunlap said that he had taken a place on the executive committee because he felt it to be a duty, not because he desired the work. He said that there had been some charges of mismanagement in the association work and whether or not the charges were true, that other enterprises had been mismanaged, and instead of abandoning them the effort was made to put them on a sounder basis, and he thought the same thing should apply to the Y. M. C. A. He said that the Y. M. C. A. meant too much to the better life and spirit of the community to have it go out of existence, and that neither the churches nor the business enterprises of the city could afford to see the Y. M. C. A. sacrificed. He said that he did not expect to see the association become self-sustaining, as it was not the history of such institutions that they could, but that the purpose of the campaign soon to begin was to so conduct the association for two years that it might prove its worth beyond contradiction. Mr. Dunlap said that he was on the committee to stay there until the sum asked for had been raised.

W. J. Brady, the third member of the committee to speak, said that the reason for some past failures was because the average citizen had not taken enough interest in the enterprise but instead had left the work for other people to do. He said that in his own case when asked to be a director he had replied no in a very positive way, and that that was the way that most citizens had upheld the institution. He expressed faith in the public that as soon as they thoroughly understood the present need that the funds for the work would be readily available.

Judge Spencer, Man with a Message. Judge Spencer of St. Louis was next introduced and referred to the previous occasions on which he has spoken in Jacksonville. It can be said that his auditors probably remember those occasions even better than he because the St. Louisian is one of the most forceful speakers Jacksonville has ever heard. He is a man with a message, who knows how to deliver it. Judge Spencer's address last night was enlivened with sprightly stories and illustrations which it is impossible to reproduce in a brief newspaper account.

He said, "Is the Y. M. C. A. worth while?" In answering this question we must estimate what is the value of a young man or the worth of a boy. If we ask the dollar value of a young man the social economist will say $5,000, but the parents of the boy will tell you that his value cannot be measured in dollars and cents. The trouble is with most of us that we get so much interested in dollar getting, in business, in the ordinary affairs of life, that we do not take or have the time to get as closely in touch with our sons as we should. I would give a large part of what I have if I could know with my own sons that they had the feeling of a St. Louis boy I know, who not long since when asked about his friends said 'Well, really, dad is my best chum.' And when we are thinking of the value of a boy, we think of the value of a man, and in this government of ours there is no value save that of the citizenship knit together.

The Value of a Man.

"I remember the fine illustration of the value of a man which occurred a few years ago when, because of one imprisoned Scotchman in the kingdom of Abyssinia, 10,000 men marched through the desert over 700 miles to free one man, and the expense of the whole expedition was $25,000,000. And we know, too, from God's word what is the value of a man, for we read, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?' We think of the Y. M. C. A. as dealing only with the strange young man, but the stranger of today is the man who comes in touch with your life tomorrow. As an illustration when I went to St. Louis as a young man the first Sunday I went to church and was afterward greeted by the minister who advised me to join the Y. M. C. A. I was a stranger to him and he didn't know, nor neither did I, that in a few years he would be my father-in-law. It has been well said tonight that the young man is the best asset of the community, and the Y. M. C. A. in its work strengthens and bulwarks the life of young men.

"No where that the Y. M. C. A. has been given a fair chance has it failed to make good. Only a year or two ago the president of a great trunk line in urging his directors for a further appropriation for Y. M. C. A. work said that the association had saved more lives on the railroad than all the appliances of invention. One in four men in our colleges now belong to the Y. M. C. A. and the total members in this country are 625,000, with 2,000 or more institutions. Last year a new building was erected on an average of every nine days. There are 85,000 men in the educational classes of the association the country over, and in the boy's classes there are 131,000. The work of the association deals with men along safe and sane lines. There is no more lonely soul than the young man who goes to a great city without friends.

The Longing for Companionship.

"In rich and poor there is that innate longing for companionship and here the Y. M. C. A. seeks to get in touch with the young life. For the boy away from home the Y. M. C. A. is in a measure a substitute and in the city statistics show that eighty out of one hundred workers are away from home. The strength of the saloon is not so much in the goods sold over the bar as in the welcome and fellowship offered. The whole purpose of the association work is to put stability into a man's life and the temptations are such for the average man that these safeguards and influences are needed. And we know, speaking finally, that no character is safe until the man has come into a close companionship with God, and that is the ultimate purpose of the Y. M. C. A."

Then State Secretary Deelhake, who has been here for some days assisting with the campaign plans, spoke very briefly saying that the entire campaign will open next Tuesday, when Mr. Shumaker of the state committee will be present. Already a number of teams have been organized and the expectation is that at least 60 men will join in the work. Mr. Snyder, who came here from Chicago several weeks ago to study the local situation, has been strongly recommended for local secretary by the state committee, and will take up the work when the campaign has been brought to a conclusion. It is also the expectation that a leader for the physical departmental work will be secured.

MISS HINRICHSSEN IS ROBBED IN EAST ST. LOUIS HOTEL

Has Handbag Taken Monday, Suffering Loss of Valuable Memoranda and Thirty Dollars in Currency.

Miss Annie Hinrichsen was robbed Monday while in a hotel in East St. Louis, according to word received yesterday evening by her mother Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen of Alexander. Miss Hinrichsen was bound for southern Illinois points in the interest of her work as inspector of institutions for the state charities commission. She was coming to spend a few hours in East St. Louis and was in company with a visiting nurse of that place at the time. A small black handbag in which were notes and memoranda and currency to the amount of thirty dollars was jerked from her hands, but the perpetrator could not be traced in the crowd.

Authorities on both sides of the river were notified but when the message was received last evening no trace had been found of the missing bag or contents.

THE BIRTH RECORD.

FINANCES CHIEF CONCERN FOR NEW CITY COUNCIL

Hope is For Some Satisfactory Working Plan at Early Date—Street Work for Bootleggers.

Visitors at the city council sessions are very welcome, and suggestions will likewise be welcomed, according to the statement of Mayor Rodgers at the council session Monday morning. The reservation was made, however, that the suggestions must be for the good of Jacksonville, meaning no doubt that the council was not extending an invitation to citizens to air any personal matters or grievances. Informal reports were made from all departments at this session, but the main discussion centered about the matter of finances; that seems to be the absorbing topic at the city hall just now, since the mayor and commissioners are all bent on the solution of the question of managing a large business with little or no capital. It can be stated, however, that the officials take a very hopeful view of the situation, and Mayor Rodgers voiced the sentiment yesterday that it is hoped that in the course of two weeks some financial arrangements may be made which will be in a measure satisfactory to the city management and to the city's creditors. After the reading of the minutes Mayor Rodgers in reporting for his department, opened the discussion of things financial by the statement that this question of securing funds was just now of absorbing interest.

In this connection he referred to the question of the employment of a city nurse and said that there were a great many people who seem to believe that the city should proceed to hire a public health nurse if the board of education could not legally do so, whether or not the funds were available. There are seemingly a great many people who do not understand the city's financial condition and who do not give it any thought. The mayor said that no matter what might be done in other cities, if the board of education had no legal right to employ and pay for a nurse, that he was not in favor of the board doing so. He expressed the sentiment that the work is valuable and almost necessary, but wanted it understood that he was talking about position and not about any person.

No Drunks Allowed. In the course of his remarks Mr. Rodgers said that in the days when Jacksonville had saloons, that since they were licensed institutions he thought it was very questionable whether intoxicated men should be arrested, the city being a party to the transaction; but now without saloons he said the council considered it a different matter and that certainly no person had a right upon the streets in an intoxicated condition, and that a strict rule will be followed in the arrest of all such persons, whether or not they are boisterously drunk. This is to be the order because no saloons are here and the city cannot in any way be said to be responsible if a man becomes intoxicated.

Reporting for his department, Commissioner Widmayer took up the financial question and said that he was receiving a good many letters from persons who had approved claims against the city asking for settlement. He said that all he could do at the present time was to write to the inquirers and assure them that their approved bills were on file and would be given attention as soon as possible. Commissioner Martin reported that he was having road signs painted which would be placed at the limits of the city as a warning to automobile drivers of the speed law to be observed. He said too, that some other measures were in contemplation for the better enforcement of the traffic ordinance. As vigorous a campaign as possible is being made in the suppression of bootlegging. Mayor Rodgers said that he believed a motorcycle was almost essential for the enforcement of the traffic ordinance, and Commissioner Martin acquiesced in this view.

Motorcycle Recommended. The police department is acknowledged to be, in a bad shape for transportation, as they must depend upon outsiders or else hire a conveyance any time that they have a call which necessitates. Commissioner Cox reported certain lots on Hardin avenue and on North East street where the property owners have failed to lay the needed sidewalks. He referred also to some sewer and culvert work which is in progress. The commissioner expressed the hope that a little later on the supplies for his department may be bought in bulk and thus effect a saving, and said that in the matter of heavy lumber that it might be possible to secure a supply from a sawmill.

The mention Mr. Cox made of sidewalks resulted in an open discussion of the instances where property owners fail to comply with city ordinances requiring sidewalks. On a number of streets the majority of property owners, when ordered, have put down concrete walks and then left other lots without sidewalks, thus resulting in a very unsatisfactory condition. Mr. Cox said that he had understood there was some question about the validity of the ordinance granting authority to the city to compel property owners to put in walks and the sentiment of the mayor and commissioners was that at any rate the proper thing to do would be to try out the ordinance and test its validity through court procedure if any property owners failed to put down walks as directed. It is recognized as unfair to the public at large to permit one or two property owners to spoil a street by failure to comply with sidewalk orders when the majority have carried out the instructions. To treat everybody alike and strictly to be the plan followed by the present council.

Pavement Replacements.

Mr. Rodgers referred to various places in the street pavements which are rough because replacements after the laying of sewers or water or gas pipes have not been satisfactory. Supt. Miser called attention to the fact that the light company pays $25 for the privilege of opening a street pavement and that the city then has the task of taking up and replacing the bricks. It is the hope as soon as some money is available to have such repair work done that a great many of the rough places now a detriment to the street pavements can be straightened up by the use of renewed foundations. Mr. Martin reported that the city's pavement along the east side of Duncan park is in a bad condition in a number of places and Mr. Cox and Mr. Vasconcellos both referred to a number of board sidewalks. It has been the policy of the city for some time not to relay board walks, but as soon as they are in very bad condition to tear them out entirely and put in cinders, if it is not advisable to lay concrete.

Mr. Vasconcellos for the light and water department said that he was asking water users to have the service-pipes at their homes put into condition, as he found in a number of instances that service pipes which needed repair were the cause of complaints of poor service. He mentioned, too, the need of a number of new poles for the light department, but said lack of funds would prevent the purchasing of any at the present time. Mr. Miser mentioned that the light company had just received a car of poles and would be willing to lend the city a number if they had any immediate need. Mr. Vasconcellos also mentioned that he had received a copy of the rules laid down by the utility commission with reference to the use of telephone, telegraph and light poles, but he could not recommend the following of the rules just at this time. The several companies and the city using poles in Jacksonville have them in common in a great many instances and a change to accord strictly with the utility commission ideas would occasion an expense which the city is not now in a position to incur. Just before adjournment Mayor Rodgers asked if any other member of the council had anything to say, or any of the visitors, for the good of Jacksonville.

Street Work of Bootleggers. At this point Rev. W. E. Spoons called attention to the custom there is in a number of cities of having bootleggers work out their fines on the streets. He thought that if this plan was followed here it might save some money and also have a good effect on the future observance of the law, as the average bootlegger is very reluctant in the matter of manual labor. Mayor Rodgers mentioned that practically all of the bootleggers now under arrest are facing charges of violating the state law and subject to the county rather than to the city, but he thought the matter was worth investigating. Mr. Cox thought that it seemed hardly fair to deprive local men of work on the streets by having it done by bootleggers, and said that daily he had applications from men who wanted to work, but he couldn't put them on because there were no funds to pay them. Mr. Vasconcellos mentioned, too, that it would be necessary to have at least one officer in charge of any bootleggers at work on the street, and that there was always the liability of escape. Mayor Rodgers and some of the commissioners thought this was the most commendable thought in the whole suggestion—the escape of the bootleggers—and that if they would escape and go away permanently the city should wish them Godspeed.

RECEIVED A PRIZE. A short time since the Journal mentioned an especially attractive display in the window of the music store conducted by J. P. Brown on the southwest corner of the square. It was of music published by Carriac-Jacobs Bond & Son of Chicago, who had offered prizes for the best display of their goods and Mr. Brown received a check for his display which stood eighth and he had in competition all the United States, so that his winning was a handsome victory of good taste in displaying.

A HARD FALL. About noon yesterday Mr. Russell and his assistants in the jewelry store on the west side were greatly startled by the crashing down of the sign and the fall of a man through the awning to the pavement below.

Investigation proved the victim to be Bland Brown who was washing the windows in the front part of Dr. Touney's office and somehow lost his hold and fell. It was fortunate for him that the awning was down as that served materially to break the fall which was hard enough at best, but no serious injury seemed to result.

CLASSMATES MEET. Dr. J. W. Wells of Waltonville, Ill. was in the city yesterday with his friend and classmate, Dr. A. E. Obermeyer of Arcadia. The two gentlemen had not met since leaving medical college and the visit was much enjoyed. They expected to go together to the sessions of the state medical society in Springfield.

Ms. Paulina Harney of Franklin was one of the city shoppers yesterday.

BURGLARS ARE CAPTURED IN HARDIN AVE. HOME

Robert Wolfe and Fred Carpenter Arrested While in Basement of H. R. Hart's Residence.

Robert Wolfe and Fred Carpenter are in the county jail to answer a charge of burglary and when their cases come up for trial there certainly will not be much of a defense. The young men were captured Sunday afternoon by Capt. of Police Davis and Desk Sergeant Kiloran in the home of Harry R. Hart on Hardin avenue.

The police department received a phone message from Leo McGinnis, who lives next door to the Hart home, that someone had entered it and the officers were able to make a quick arrival at the scene from the fact that Bert Young in his car was just rounding the corner to go to the Estaque garage as the officers reached the square. He took them at record speed down East Court street and arriving at the Hart home, Chief Davis captured one of the men and Sergeant Kiloran the other.

It seems that Carpenter had applied to Mr. Hart for something to eat. He was given a lunch and Mr. Hart being ready to start out with his family in his car, left the man on the back porch eating the lunch. Notwithstanding the kindness which has been shown, Carpenter, as soon as Mr. Hart had disappeared, went over to the Burlington yards and returned with his companion. They soon had managed to effect an entrance but as they were doing so were observed from a window by Mr. McGinnis, who, as previously stated, sent in the call. The men were in the basement when arrested.

Monday the young men were taken before Justice Dyer where they valued examination and in default of bonds of $500 each were committed to the county jail to await action of the grand jury at the November term of court.

MISS HUGHES' RECITAL.

Miss Corinne Hughes, a senior in the School of Expression of the Illinois Woman's college, will give an original adaptation of J. Hartley Manner's novel "Peg O' My Heart" on Wednesday afternoon, May 19th, in music hall at 4:15. Because of the adaptation into acts, no one will be admitted except between acts, and the recital begins promptly. Miss Hughes is a junior in the college department and in addition receives her diploma in expression this year. She has been heard frequently in recital work here and those who have heard her are anticipating an enjoyable afternoon with the charming Irish girl of the story, whose character is peculiarly adapted to Miss Hughes' quaint and piquant style.

COMEDY OF ERRORS WAS GAME SUNDAY

DUST AND WIND PREVENT A FAST CONTEST.

Eagles Win From Schafer Seals of Springfield by a Score of 25 to 16. Next Game Will be With Divernon.

Shakespeare's Comedy of Errors was not in it with the comedy staged by the Eagles and the Schafer Seals from Springfield at the National League game Sunday afternoon. When the smoke, and, incidentally, the dust of battle, had cleared away the score was 25 to 16 in favor of the Eagles.

There was a reason for this, however. When the game started it gave promise of being a good battle. The wind was so high that it continually swept clouds of dust over the infield sometimes hiding the players from view. This wind made it almost impossible to judge a ball hit in the air and also prevented the pitchers from having any kind of control. Had the day been good Wright and T. Hall would have had a battle royal for both of them had plenty of stuff but could not get the ball over. The result was plenty of wild pitches, batsmen hit and bases on balls.

It would be impossible to give a detailed story of the game. After the battle was over the score book looked like a war map of Europe. Jacksonville made eleven runs in the second inning off of two hits. The visitors made five in the eighth off of two hits. This was the story throughout the nine innings. Freeman went in for Jacksonville in the eighth and looked good. He did not allow a hit and struck out four men. Next Sunday the Eagles will meet the strong Divernon club. The Divernon club was one of the few clubs to defeat the Eagles last season and a good game is assured.

TAX DODGERS COME UNDER THE WIRE

Orleans, Mass., May 17.—This is a busy day for the assessors of Orleans, for it is the last day for filing statements of real and personal estate, and there are over two dozen new residents who have flocked to the town to get in under the $2.00 tax rate. The new residents have nearly two millions of taxable property. Although there are only a few over a thousand residents, the town's valuation has reached 5 millions, or $5,000 per inhabitant, which is a new record. The low rate of three dollars per thousand will be retained unless the legislature interferes, to stop the tax-dodging movement.

CANAL OFFICIAL FACES TRIAL FOR GRAFT CHARGES

John Burke Accused of Defrauding Government Out of Big Sum in Commissary Department.

New York, May 17.—Trial is set for Monday in the federal court here of John Burke, commissary of the Panama Canal Zone, Ricardo Bernaldez, former governor of the province of Colon and Jacob L. Sales, a prominent merchant of Colon, on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States. Major General George W. Goethals, governor of the Canal Zone, will be the principal witness.

A few months ago the federal grand jury handed down a new indictment against Burke, bringing up to $22,182, the total of drafts he is alleged to have received in the alleged deal with Sales to supply the commissary with tobacco. Eleven drafts, alleged to have been paid to Burke, and cashed in this city, are mentioned in the new indictment.

When the case is called on Monday, it is likely the government will ask for separate trials for the three men, that of Sales to come first. A rumor was spread last March that Burke would become a government witness against his co-defendants.

Burke was manager of the commissary department at the canal until February 9, 1914. Last May, indictments were returned against Burke, Jacob Sales, Isaac Brandon, Robert Wilcox and others. Burke surrendered at New Orleans. Sales was arrested in New York and Brandon and Wilcox gave themselves up at Ancon. Last fall, Pascal Canavaggio, a wholesale liquor dealer of Colon, was indicted and also surrendered himself. In addition, indictments have been brought in against merchants and bankers in Germany, but due to the war, no papers have yet been served on them.

Mr. Bermudez was manager of the commissary department up to nine years ago, when he was replaced by Henry Burnett, who about a year later, was succeeded by John Burke. He has been popular in the political and financial circles of Colon, and was collector of revenue, a deputy of the National Assembly, and governor of the province. It has been rumored he was slated to a position in the cabinet of the Panama government. He has done much to improve business conditions in Colon.

After Burke was suspended as manager of the commissary a year ago last February, he went back to the isthmus and asked Col. Goethals for an investigation. Col. Harry A. Hodges, Capt. F. O. Whitlock and Lieut. Frederick Meers were appointed as the committee of investigation. This commission was known as the "whitewash committee," whether rightly or not. Its report was not made public, but Mr. Burke's friends asserted that he had been completely exonerated. A few days later Burke was indicted. It was claimed that the investigating committee called no witnesses except those asked for by Burke, with one single exception.

Curing Catarrh is A Simple Method

Go to its Source and the Cure Is Then Accomplished.

Only those who have used S. S. S. for the blood know that catarrh is simply a blood trouble.

Most people, uninstructed in this membranous disease, treat their nose and throat as if catarrh was a local trouble. It is not so. To treat catarrh it is necessary to go into the stomach, the liver, the lungs, the kidneys and all the vital organs of the body. And it is S. S. S. that at once enters the entire blood circulation, all the organs of the body, all the mucous surfaces and becomes a dominant factor for renewed health. It is a simple method when you figure it out. Catarrh is plainly an inflammation of the mucous membranes.

And there is in S. S. S. certain ingredients which cause these mucous surfaces to change or convert their secretions into a substance for easy elimination. A special book on this subject will be mailed to all who write to The Swift Specific Co., 110 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Catarrh is very often the result of some other blood trouble, some germ that gets into the blood and multiplies beyond the control of nature. S. S. S. is the remedy. Do not accept a substitute for this matchless remedy. Read the circular wrapped around the bottle. It is important.

HARTWELL DRAINAGE DISTRICT IMPROVEMENTS ARE COMPLETED

Pumping Plant is Said to Be the Largest of Its Kind Ever Constructed—Caldwell Engineering Company Supervised Work.

The following article concerning the Hartwell drainage district is reported from the White Hall Republic.

Comparatively few of our readers are familiar with the gigantic reclamation enterprises along the Illinois river on the western edge of Greene county. From time to time brief mention has been made of the testing of the new pump station of the Hartwell Drainage and Levee District, one of the reclamation enterprises of which Greene county can boast with a high and just degree of pride. The tests of this plant are now nearing completion, and they are proving the correctness of the engineering work of the Caldwell Engineering company of Jacksonville.

The Hartwell Drainage and Levee District is a drainage and levee organization under the Illinois drainage laws, and is located on the Illinois river at the western edge of Greene county, lying immediately south of the Kansas City line of the Chicago & Alton railroad.

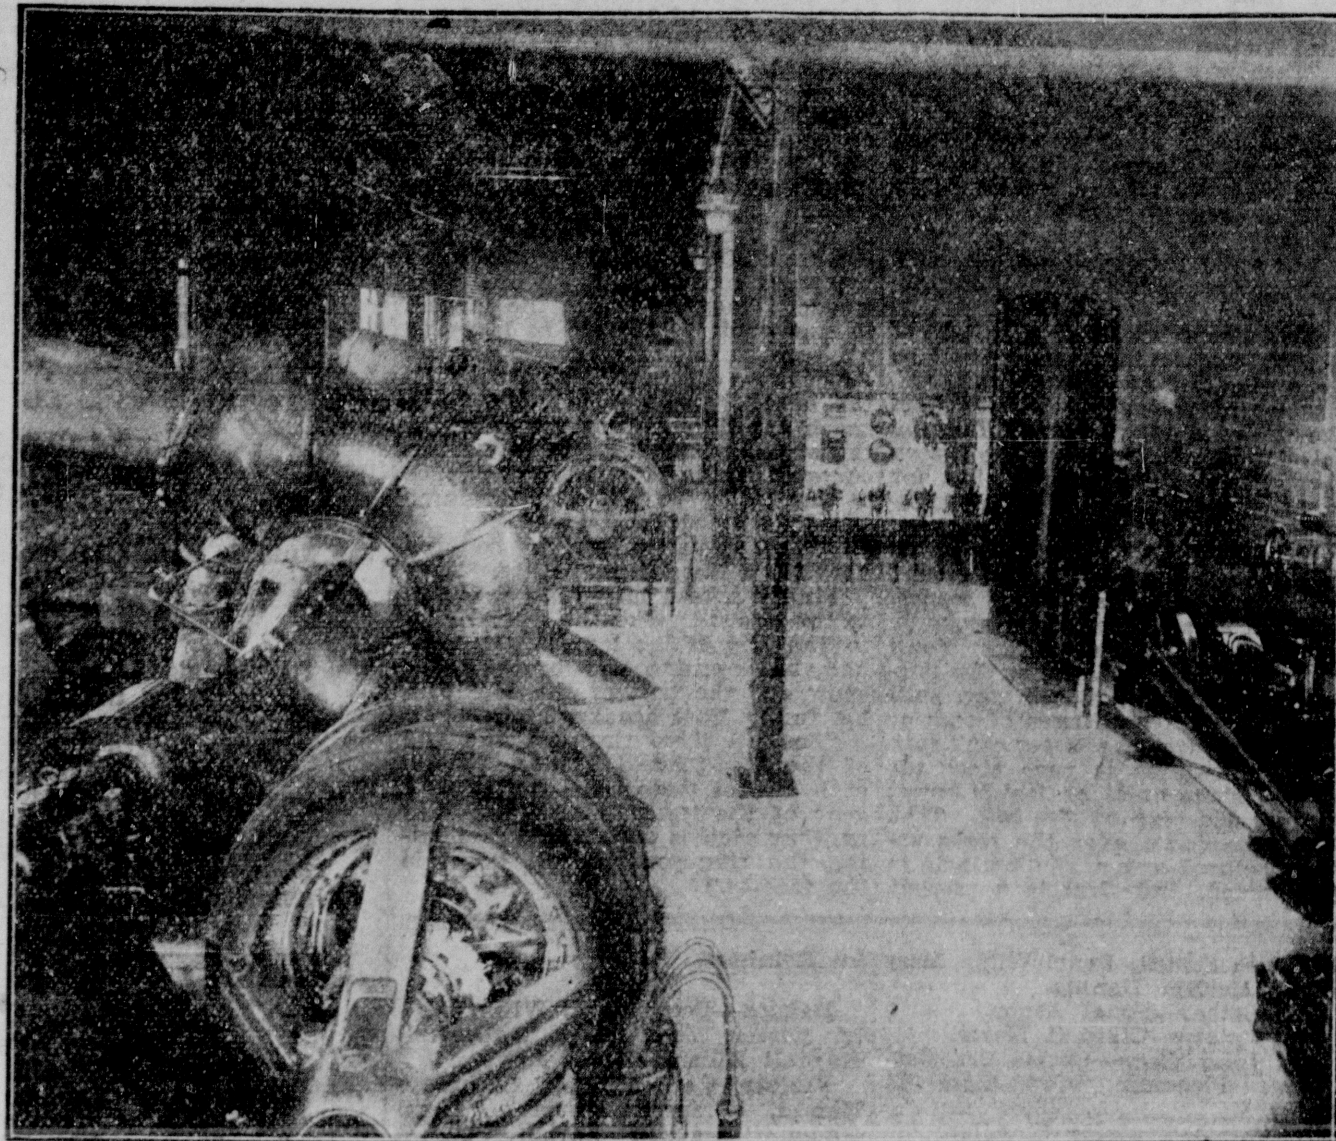

Three Discharge pipes have capacity to carry off discharge of the huge pumps.

The main ditch has a capacity, when flowing full, of approximately 262,000 gallons per minute. This is about three times the capacity of the pumps, but the ditch will never have an opportunity to flow full, and the additional capacity of the ditch can be utilized, if necessary, for storage purposes.

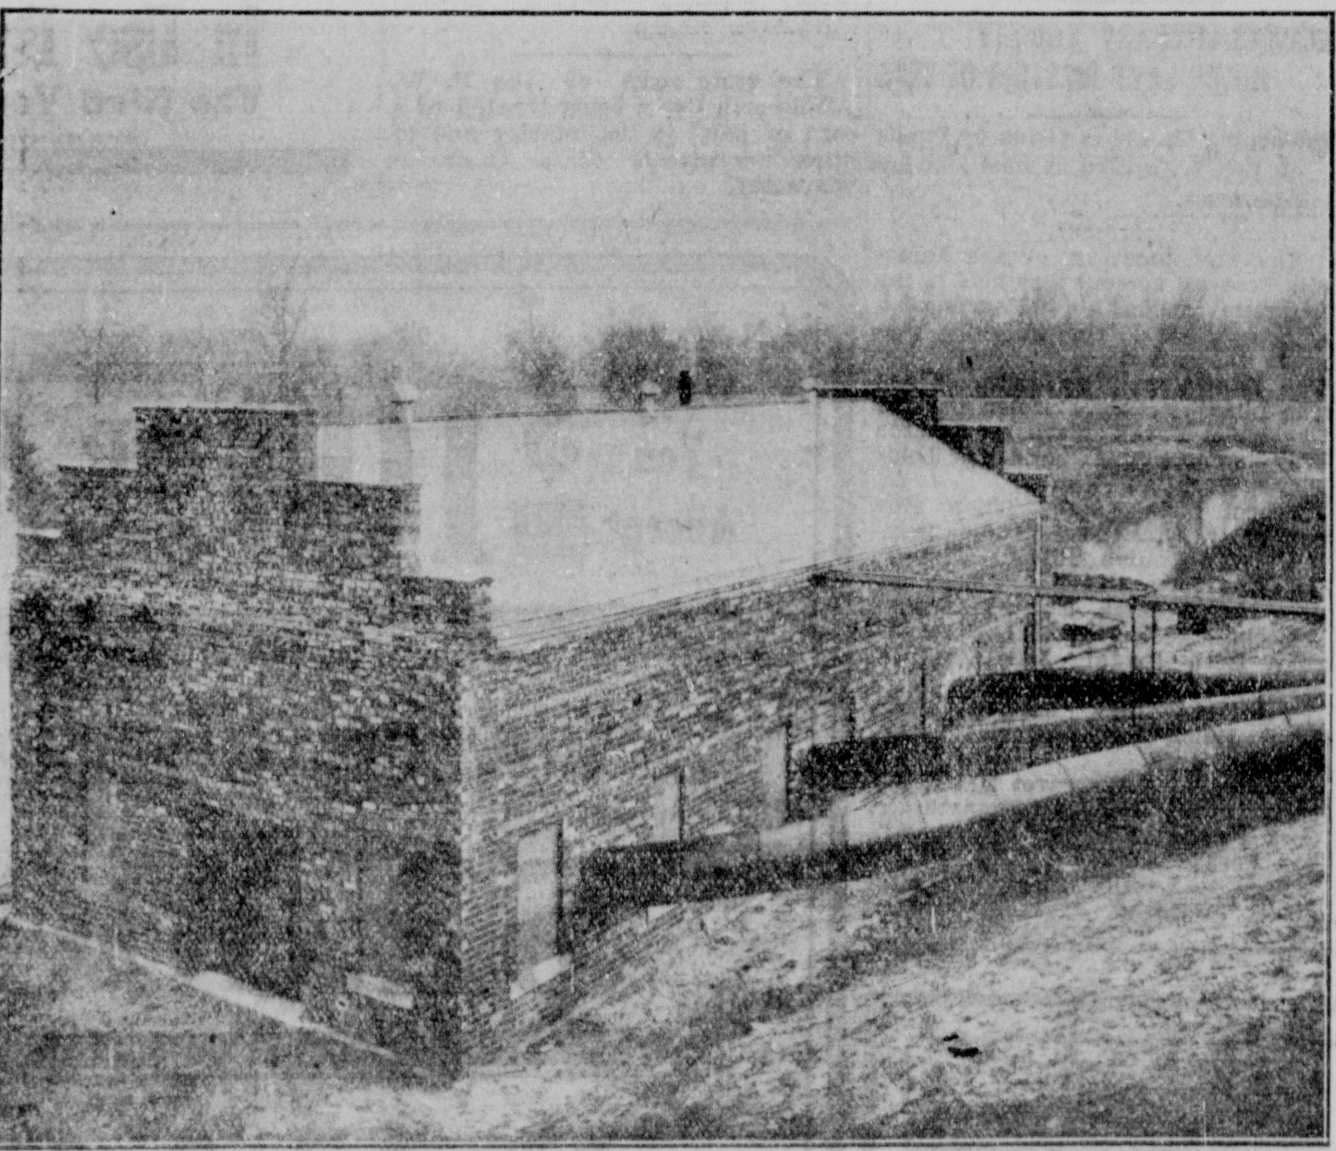

There are approximately 8,957 acres of land subject to assessments in this district. The entire water shed consists of approximately 12,000 acres. The entire cost of all being brought to the power house over a transmission line, and in the power house is stepped down from 30,000 volts to 2,300 volts, at which voltage the district uses the same in its motors. The entire transformer equipment is located within the pump house.

The pumping plant alone cost approximately $35,000. Just to show the immensity of the capacity of the pumps, if they were to pump water for twenty-four hours at their actu-

Interior pump station, showing electrical lydriven motor with silent chain drive.

Pump house Hartwell Drainage District.

The district is surrounded by a levee thirteen miles in length, five miles of which is along the river front, the rest of the levee being along Hurricane creek on the north and Apple creek on the south. The levee is constructed to a grade of twenty-eight feet above low water along a majority of each end, and twenty-six feet above low water along the river. This levee has been entirely rebuilt during the past two years, and is now in a very substantial condition.

The interior drainage of the district is procured by drainage ditches, consisting of about eleven and a quarter miles of the same. The ditches have a bottom width averaging from twelve feet to thirty-five feet, and at top widths varying from twenty-eight to sixty-five feet. The ditches are all placed at least eight feet below the natural surface of the ground, and the main ditch at the pump station has a depth of fourteen feet, and a bottom width of thirty-five feet, and a top width approximately sixty-five feet. The improvements to date has been approximately $251,000, or an average of $27 per acre.

The Drainage Pumping Plant.

The drainage pumping plant has recently been completed, and consists of three (3) bronze impeller pumps, having a guaranteed total capacity of 67,500 gallons per minute. The three pumps are driven by three 150hp alternating current motors, the transmission employed being three silent chains fourteen inches wide and weighing approximately 500 pounds each. The centrifugal pumps alone weight 23,000 pounds each, and, as above stated, are equipped with bronze impellers, wherein they differ from any other pump ever made for drainage purposes, as all other drainage pumps heretofore manufactured have cast-iron impellers. The engineers of the district calculate that bronze impellers add about two per cent to the efficiency of the pumps.

The power to drive the motors is furnished by the Central Illinois Public Service Company, the same al capacity, they would pump approximately 129,600,000 gallons, which on a common 160-acre farm would cover the same to a depth of two and one-half feet.

The suction bay on the east side of the pump house is entirely of concrete, being eighteen feet deep by fifty-two feet long and sixteen feet wide. The floor of the suction bay is also of concrete one foot thick.

The building is a very neat structure, built of paving blocks. The walls are thirteen inches thick. The building is approximately sixty-five feet long by thirty feet wide, having three steel trusses spanning its width supporting the roof of 2" yellow pine covered with black slate. The plant is also equipped with a five-ton traveling crane, which is able to go the entire length of the building over the motors and pumps one man being able to handle a maximum weight of 10,000 pounds with this crane.

The building is lighted with electric lights, and all wiring is concealed ducts. All electrical installations are practically concealed, the motor leads being placed underneath the floor and concealed in water-proof conduits.

The entire plant is absolutely complete, having a Vermont marble switchboard, on which are mounted switches, wattmeters, watt meters, ammeters, etc.

The discharge piping from the pumps is of quarter-inch steel plate, riveted at light.

The entire building is floored with a reinforced concrete floor six inches in thickness, and supported on concrete piling. All building foundations are carried down to a depth sufficient to give ample bearing power, and foundations are all upon blue clay. All concrete work in the entire installation was reinforced by the use of triangular mesh reinforcement.

The principal land-owners in the district are J. O. Cole and Ada E. Layman, Peru, Indiana; G. A. McWilliams, Chicago, Illinois; C. J. Lumpkin, Carlinville, Illinois; and William Brittin, Williamsville, Ill. The commissioners of the district are C. J. Lumpkin, president; B. Frank Bridgewater, secretary, and Charles Schutz.

The entire engineering work has been handled by the Caldwell Engineering Company of Jacksonville, Illinois. F. A. Whiteside of Carrollton is attorney for the district.

"Murder! Everybody tries to step on my corn!" "GETS-IT" and You'll Have No Corns to Be Stepped On.

corn cure of the century, the new way, the sure, painless, simple way. It makes a fellow really feel foolish after he's used toe-eating salves, corn-biting ointments, toe-handling bandages, blood-bringing razors, knives, files, scissors, jabbers and what-nots, when he uses just 2 drops of "GETS-IT" and sees his corn vanish. The difference is divine. Just try it. You won't wince when you put on your shoes in the morning. "GETS-IT" is sure, "gets" any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

ARLINGTON MERCHANT FEELS BETTER

Friedrich Redeker, a business man of Arlington, Ill., was a victim of stomach and digestive troubles. He went to a hospital for an operation for another trouble. When he recovered from the operation he found his stomach trouble worse and his heart affected.

He took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. He got his appetite back and gained in strength right away. He wrote:

"I owe you some words of congratulation for your stomach remedy. I could not eat anything but soft food and the bloating from gas got so bad that at one time I had a fainting spell for three hours. I went to one of your Chicago drug stores and got your remedy. I took the remedy and the next morning was relieved. I am getting stronger and can eat anything that comes along."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

Dr. P. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among a host of ailments with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

DUTCH WOMEN FEEL HARDSHIPS OF WAR

MOBILIZATION LEAVES ALL HOME WORK FOR THEM.

Even With the Official Assistance Given There Are Thousands of Cases of Hideous Misery—Royal National Relief Committee is Occupied.

(Associated Press Correspondence)

The Hague, Netherlands, May 15.—The hardships of the mobilization of the Dutch Army have fallen hard upon Dutch women. The men have left all their own way—they are fed, clothed, housed and given medical attendance by the Government, and paid eight cents a day pocket money to boot. Besides, they are kept well exercised in the open air and held to orderly lives, which is excellent for their health.

With the women it is another story. A farmer's wife may have young children to care for, she still must do the spring ploughing and she has done it. The shopkeepers' wives must keep their shops. When application is made for it, the wife of the soldier in the militia receives a guildler a day—forty cents—but even with this official assistance, there are still thousands of cases of hideous misery.

With all of these the Royal National Relief Committee is occupied, and the generous among the Hollanders of wealth foot the bills.

Some of the direct need is among those of good family. A Holland whose income has been small but regular from old, established securities of companies whose business has been crippled by the war. There are no more dividends. Smiling faced houses in good streets of Amsterdam and The Hague still show a brave front, with spotless lace curtains in the windows. But back of the curtains, red checked old ladies and penurious, white whiskered old gentlemen are often hungry.

A young woman law student in Amsterdam has started the work of relief for this class. The offices are in a building in Amsterdam to enter which implies no errand of charity seeking. But there, those who come are given financial aid if they need it; legal help, too, to assist them to save what may be from the wreckage of fallen fortunes; and best of all, a sympathetic ear ready to hear the story and to comfort.

The small shopkeeper, the barber, the blacksmith, middling prosperous in peace times, with a staff of regular customers, will suffer longest. He cannot close his shop for nine months and more, and find his trade waiting when he returns from the army. The wives of such men sell or pawn what little things they can spare rather than ask for relief. To their rescue, Queen of the Netherlands has called together a group of rich bankers of the larger cities of Holland. They assist the hard pressed of small businesses to short time loans on little or no interest, the good name of the shop and its keeper as security.

SMALLPOX CASES.

G. C. Harrison returned Saturday to his home in Alexander, after being away a week and found himself barred out and no fuss at all in the family, but a smallpox sign on the side of the house. There was one case in his house and two others in the town, but they seem to be light and not much trouble is anticipated.

LAND O'NOD STORIES

ABOUT FRIEND TREE

"A tree is one of the most beautiful and wonderful things in the world," said Tinker Teddie Tee, the merry elf to Billy Be By Bo Bum, as they trudged through the White Forest after leaving Frisky the Red Squirrel to gnaw through the pine cone and get the juicy seeds hidden inside. "Ever since the world began, trees have helped men and animals in one way or another. In fact, I don't know how we would get along if it wasn't for our friends the trees. It makes us Little People who live in the woods feel sorry every time a tree is cut down, for we know what good friends they are."

Just then Billy and his companion came to the bank of a creek, only there wasn't any water in it now, nothing but big smooth stones and pebbles, covered with snow, and here and there a log that had been washed down by the Spring freshets.

"As dry as a bone that has lain out in the sun all Summer," said Billy. "But last Fall when we had that awfully hard rain, the water was running down here two or three feet deep. Then the next day there were only a few puddles."

"And yet when your Father was a boy, there was plenty of water in this creek all the year round," replied Tinker.

"Then why isn't there any now?" asked Billy.

"Because," replied Tinker, shaking his finger at Billy and looking very wise, "because the lumbermen have cut down all the big trees that used to cover all the hills for miles about."

"How did cutting down the trees make the creek dry up?" asked Billy in surprise.

Before replying Tinker pulled out a tiny handkerchief. Just about as big as the end of a lead pencil and very carefully brushed the snow from the top of a log nearby. Then he sat down, and pushing the weeny copper kettle that served him for a hat onto the back of his head, replied:

"You see Billy Be By Bo Bum, the roots of the trees keep the ground soft and porous. Just like a sponge. So when it rains, the earth soaks up the water, which filters down through the ground, giving the tiny roots a drink on the way, until at last it strikes a layer of rock or clay. Of course the water can't soak through that, so it runs along the vein of stone until at last it bursts through the side of the hill. Then it trickles down over the rocks until it hollows out a shallow hole in the ground, and that is a spring."

Elizabeth Struck, Pearl Wild, Mary Black, Meriam Dennis.

95. Bethel—Ethel Zenor.
96. Victory—Clara C. Meyer.
97. Lake View—Carrie Bruening.
98. Pleasant View—Rose L. Quigg.

102. Eagle—Beatrice Standley.
103. Thompson—Esther Meyer.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

CROP DAMAGE RESULTS IN SWIFT ADVANCE IN PRICE OF WHEAT

MARKET IS LEFT TO DEVICES OF PROFESSIONAL ELEMENT

Reports of insect injury to growing wheat are said to be the worst in many years—Other Staples Gain.

Chicago, May 17.—Crop damage that amounts to 100,000,000 bushels resulted today in a swift advance of the price of wheat. Although somewhat unsettled at the close, the market finished 1 1/2c to 4 1/2c above Saturday night's level. Other staples, too, showed gains, corn 3/4c to 1 1/2c @ 3/4c to 1 1/2c and provisions 5c to 15c.

Reports of insect injury to growing wheat, especially in Missouri, were said to be the worst for many years. Advances from Kansas, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, all indicated that the harvest prospect of 1915 had been seriously lowered and there was much talk that the total harm might be represented by a cut of fully a hundred million bushels from the yield suggested by the government figures of a month ago. Wiggins in value which began almost as soon as the season was fairly under way showed the greatest vigor in the last three quarters of the final hour.

Big export clearances and a decided falling off in the domestic visible supply total tended to add to bullish sentiment regarding wheat. In consequence, some of the largest houses in the trade were active buyers at around the topmost prices reached, chiefly the July option. Chicago handlers sold a little cash wheat for export by way of Montreal. Corn turned upside down when the fact became evident that a bulge was in order for wheat. Previously, the bears had the advantage owing to favorable weather in the United States and in Argentina. Afterward some attention was given to predictions of frost in the domestic belt. Oats merely reflected the strength of other cereals. Shorts covered.

JURY FINDS FOR DEFENDANT IN DRAINAGE DISTRICT CASE

Stumborg Habeas Corpus Case Taken Under Adversity by Judge Burton—Various Court Orders.

The jury in the Montgomery county drainage case, which was styled the Union Drainage district against William Stumborg and James E. Daily, brought in a verdict finding in favor of the defendants. The case was on trial practically all of last week, and a verdict was reached Saturday night and according to the instruction of the court was sealed until Monday afternoon. When court convened, Judge Burton received the verdict, which found in favor of Mr. Stumborg and Mr. Daily. The amount involved was about $1,700 and arose because of some differences with reference to work done in the district by Mr. Daily as contractor.

Several orders were entered by Judge Burton Monday, but the most interesting matter which came to his notice was the habeas corpus case from Chapin. In this proceeding T. J. Priest, through his attorney J. O. Priest, sought to secure possession of Clara May Stumborg, the four-year-old daughter of Mrs. Osa Stumborg who died March 8 last. It was charged in the writ that the child was being held by Mr. and Mrs. William Stumborg and Miss Hattie Bobbitt, all of Chapin, contrary to the wishes of Mrs. Stumborg as declared in her will. In this document it was directed that T. J. Priest, the executor of the will, proceed to sell certain property for the use of the child and that the child be placed in some Christian home and a guardian legally appointed. Mr. Priest had arranged through the White Hall orphans' home to place the child but when he went to Chapin to take her to White Hall he met with some opposition from Mr. Stumborg and Miss Bobbitt. The legal proceedings then resulted. The child was in court Monday with Mr. and Mrs. William Stumborg and Miss Bobbitt, together with some other relatives. Mr. Priest was also present, as were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyler, of Canton, who wished to adopt the little girl. According to testimony Mr. and Mrs. William Stumborg and Miss Bobbitt were opposed only to the placing of the child in the White Hall orphans' home even temporarily, but were willing that she should go into some good private home. They declared that they had offered to care for the child without cost until such a private home could be found for her instead of having her go even for a few days to the White Hall institution. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stumborg testified that the only reason that they did not want to adopt the child themselves was because of Mrs. Stumborg's ill health. After hearing the evidence Judge Burton took the case under advisement. He stated that his reason for doing this was because of certain provisions in the will which might raise the question of property rights should the child be legally adopted and die before attaining her majority.

Ordered Entered.
Orders entered included the following:
Ivales Todd vs. Prudential Insurance company, assumpsit; by agreement all parties' plea in original declaration to stand as plea in amended declaration.
People vs. Sylvester R. McDaniel, attachment; defendant enters recognition with surety in the sum of $100 until further order of the court.
W. A. Boley Ice company vs. R. A. Gates Fuel and Ice company, assumpsit; suit dismissed by the plaintiff with cost to be paid as per agreement of the parties to the suit.
Robert Diggins vs. T. L. Morrison et al, foreclosure; cause dismissed by the court.

Added to the Docket.
Two cases were added to the docket of the circuit court for the November term yesterday. One case is that of Bertha Couchman against Leona Anderson, case. The other is a people's case against Robert Wolf and Fred Carpenter, charged with burglary. Clyde Payne, alias G. C. Cochran, who is in jail as a result of securing $400 from the local National Express office by means of bogus express orders, yesterday entered a plea of guilty to the charge of operating a confidence game. Judge Burton therefore sentenced him to serve a term in the penitentiary at Chester until discharged according to law.

PROBATE COURT.
In the matter of Derithra Mathews, guardian's report approved.
In the estate of Aphas R. Pease, deceased, the court acting on the petition for appointment of an appraiser to fix the inheritance tax, named E. Elter of Waverly.
In the estate of Mary J. Dial the report of private sale of personal property was approved.
In the estate of George A. Wheeler, deceased, final report was approved.

RED MEN'S STATE MEET.
George W. Davis and Joseph F. Brennan left for Madison Monday to attend the annual state meeting of Red Men. These state meetings always bring together four or five hundred delegates and the attendance promised for Madison this year is above the normal. Mr. Brennan has been the state treasurer for five years, and as this is the time of service usually allotted, he will probably be succeeded this year.

A GOOD ALFALEA CROP.

Robert Ranson, residing a few miles west of the city, has some 12 acres of alfalfa which he expects to have cut this week. He has another field which he put in the same crop about twelve years ago, but which he has not cut for a year or two, as it is largely blue grass now, and he says that is his experience with alfalfa, but it does so well that he prizes it very highly. The field which he will not cut but pasture, he says, yielded six tons to the acre right along for seven years and then bluegrass began to prevail. He cut it a few years longer and got pretty good crops, but finally the bluegrass so prevailed that he will pasture it till he plows it up. From some land seeded last year he looks for per-haps three tons to the acre and from the rest about six, as he says it is very fine. He thinks phosphate and lime undoubtedly good for alfalfa fields, but he has not been obliged to use either, as his land is very good. He says if a farmer has much corn in cultivation it is hardly wise to sow much alfalfa, but it is a highly profitable crop. Today it is said a new crop right out of the field will bring $13 a ton and when five to six tons are produced the crop is certainly profitable.

TONS OF FERTILIZER.

As an indication of the growing interest in Morgan county in fertilizing the soil, one needs but to visit the plant of the Coking cement company on Webster avenue. There Mr. Coking has already unloaded twelve hundred tons of limestone fertilizer and within the next two or three weeks will unload that much more. He has men with teams and scraper pulling it back from the side of the car where it is first unloaded. Mr. Coking is putting in this comparatively large supply of fertilizer at this time because the market price is advantageous and for the added reason that later on it is almost impossible to secure enough to meet the demands. Just a few years ago the local dealers who sold three or four cars of limestone for fertilizer thought they were doing a good business, but now all of them handle a goodly number of cars and this year will see at least five to six thousand tons of limestone sent out from Jacksonville for fertilizing purposes. This does not represent the total of the business done in the county, either, as many car-loads are shipped to stations nearer the farms than Jacksonville.

THE GRAND CAFE WILL OPEN TODAY.

The work on the Grand Cafe is now completed and the place will be open today for business. Experienced help has been employed in that all important place, the kitchen, and patrons may expect a certain satisfactory service. Short orders and meals will be served and the place will be managed by experienced men, who will spare no pains to give satisfaction to all guests. The place will always be cool and pleasant and well screened, so that it will not fail to attract both ladies and gentlemen.

VISITORS FROM THE CAPITAL.

An auto party from Springfield out for a ride in their Chalmers car arrived in the city at noon yesterday and spent the afternoon with Mrs. Harvey M. Hopkins of West College avenue. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Branson, Mrs. Oscar Becker, Miss Edith Nickey and Mrs. Harry Watson.

SURGICAL MAGNETS.

Paris, Jan. 26th.—In the hospitals of France magnets have been developed that will drag fragments of shrapnel to the surface from a depth in the flesh of even six inches, and steel-jacketed bullets have been drawn out from a depth of more than two inches.

At the Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., are many of wonderful electric machines, high frequency currents, X-ray, violet rays. Then Dr. Pierce has equipped the Sanitarium with every known device to aid the sick and in the Surgical Department every instrument and appliance approved by the modern operator. The permanent cure of rupture is accomplished here without pain with local anaesthesia. Stone in the Bladder and Gravel are removed in many cases without pain and the patient can return home cured in a few days.

Dr. R. V. Price, nearly half a century ago, devised and used two prescriptions which were almost unfailing. They were made without alcohol or narcotics, extracted from roots and herbs by using pure glycerine and the ingredients are made public.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a tonic and blood purifier that cures pimples, blotches, sores, humors, eruptions and diseases of the skin.

Nothing wands as high today in the estimation of thousands of women as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—this is a soothing nerve medicine which cures the functional derangements and painful disorders of women. For girls about to enter womanhood, women about to become mothers and the changing days of middle age Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription should always be on hand. In liquid or tablets. Write Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free 136-page book on woman's diseases. Every woman should have one.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, cloth bound, sent free to you on receipt of 3 dimes (or stamps) to pay expenses of mailing only.—Advertisement.

MET WITH ACCIDENTS.

Henry Theis, son of George Theis, residing on the George Sargent farm west of the city, was kicked by a horse Sunday and was severely bruised in his chest and abdomen.

Struck by Door.

Joe Lovell, who is employed on the farm of C. R. Lewis west of the city, was struck by a barn door during the high wind Sunday and received a cut on his head which required the attention of a surgeon, who found it necessary to take a number of stitches to close the wound.

Burned by Gasoline.

John Fogarty, who was with a camping party at Wilcox Lake, in Cass county, arrived home Saturday night to secure attention to his right hand, which was badly burned when a can of gasoline exploded while he was near it in camp. He was given medical attention by Dr. Allen King, who also attended Mr. Theis and Mr. Lovell.

MARTIN-SIMPSON WEDDING MONDAY AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Young People Will Reside in Jacksonville Where Mr. Martin Preaches—The Rev. Myron L. Pontius Says Ceremony.

The Rev. Davis W. Martin and Miss Martha H. Simpson were married at 4:15 o'clock Monday afternoon at Central Christian church, in the presence of only immediate relatives. The Rev. Myron L. Pontius, who said the rite, made beautiful use of the ring ceremony. Green and white were employed in the church decorations to pretty effect and the service though simple, was charming in the extreme. The young people left for a brief wedding trip by way of the 5:30 o'clock Chicago & Alton and will be at home to their friends in Jacksonville after the groom's graduation from Eureka college.

The wedding was announced some weeks ago to take place in June, but pastoral duties of the groom caused plans to be altered. Rev. Mr. Martin is engaged in community work in Jacksonville and immediately after graduation will be engaged in duties which will require his closest attention. A federation plan is being worked out among three congregations of the McLean county town and Rev. Mr. Martin will be required to assume full pastoral duties at the earliest moment possible. Mr. and Mrs. Martin plan next fall to enter the University of Chicago, where the former will do the work for his master's degree and Mrs. Martin will take courses in music. Mr. Martin will receive his bachelor's degree from Eureka college Friday, June 11.

Miss Alice Mathis presided at the organ during the ceremony Monday, using Dvorak's Humoresque as a prelude and following with the wedding march from Lohengrin. "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell and the wedding march by Mendelssohn, completed the musical program. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chene with lace and pearl trimmings and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. There were no attendants. Mrs. W. R. Barney of Yeager, Okla., a sister of the bride, was among the relatives present.

Both bride and groom are graduates of the Jacksonville high school and both were born and reared in this city. Mr. Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Martin, 323 East Morton avenue and is a young man of excellent repute and exemplary character. After taking a portion of his theological studies at Eureka, he was ordained a minister of the Christian church and filled his first pulpit at Concord. Mrs. Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Simpson, 867 North Church street. Scores of friends will join in wishing her and Mr. Martin a wedded life of many years and much happiness.

Kimbell-Endsley.

A very simple but pretty wedding took place Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Endsley, 207 East College avenue, when their daughter Mary Ellen became the bride of Mr. James L. Kimbell of Cairo, Ill. Rev. G. W. Flagg of Centenary M. E. church officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by immediate relatives and friends.

The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion; the dining room was in pink and white and the parlor in white roses and carnations. After the marriage a three course dinner was served.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kimbell of Cairo and is associated with his father in the lumber business. The bride is an accomplished young woman of this city. She received part of her education at the High school, and has also studied music.

The young people left on the 6:35 Wabash train Sunday evening for a short visit in Springfield. They expect to visit other northern points before returning to Jacksonville where they will reside for a short time.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT. Mrs. Margaret H. Widrig, special representative from the Pictorial Review Co., New York will be at our Pattern Department today and Wednesday. Come and learn of these popular patterns.

LOUISE OSBORNE ROWE NAMED COMMISSIONER

HEADS PUBLIC WELFARE DEPARTMENT IN CHICAGO.

Former Jacksonville Resident Appointed to Important Position by Mayor Thompson—Sees Great Possibilities in Political Office.

(Special to Journal.)

Chicago, Ill., May 17.—Mrs. Louise Osborne Rowe formerly of Jacksonville was appointed commissioner of public welfare today by Mayor Thompson. She lives in luxurious apartments at 3204 Sheridan Road and is what some of the children on the seething west side, with whose welfare she is most concerned might call a "high brow lady." A brief sketch of her life tends to sustain this appraisal.

She was born in Jacksonville, Ill., and educated at a private school on the south side. She took a two year course in English at the University of Chicago and later started an insurance magazine which she attempted to develop into a general magazine and sold at a loss. She has written a comedy-drama which she expects will be produced in the fall.

She is not accepting a political office for the salary there is in it which is $5,000 a year, but because "there is no greater pleasure than doing something for humanity," and she admits that it's a big task. "But I am going to try to make the people of Chicago realize there is a great need for my department," she asserted last night in the reception room of her suite, which overlooks the lake. "Just how I am going to do this I cannot now state. I have always worked more or less since I left school a woman who has no children and a comfortable home, who does not engage in something to test her mentally, should be considered a sloth."

Mrs. Rowe was very active in the organization work of Mayor Thompson's campaign.

BIG MACHINERY SHIPMENT.

Perhaps the best answer to those who have questioned the stability of the Rumely business is the mammoth shipment of Rumely machinery which will pass through here today via Chicago & Alton R. R., about 2:25 p.m., on its way to Oklahoma and Texas.

It clearly shows the healthy condition of the Rumely company and proves the faith that the American farmer has in the reliability of its time-tried lines—Rumely, Advance and Gaar-Scott. Further, it is very tangible evidence of the splendid prospects for a bumper crop.

The special trainload of over 50 cars was assembled at Chicago, the factories of the Rumely company at La Porte, Battle Creek, Richmond and Stillwater, contributing. The average value of each car is over $2,000.00, as $100,000.00 is a conservative estimate of the value of this single shipment.
